Introduction

New Round-Up 4 English Grammar Practice combines games and fun with serious, systematic grammar practice. It is ideal for young learners in the preliminary stages of English language learning.

Students see grammar points clearly presented in colourful boxes and tables. They practise grammar through lively, highly illustrated games and oral and writing activities.

New Round-Up is especially designed for different students studying English in different ways.

It can be used:

- in class with a coursebook. Students do both oral work – in pairs and in groups – and written work in New Round-Up.
- after class. The 'write-in' activities are ideal for homework. Students can practise what they have learned in the classroom.
- on holidays for revision. New Round-Up has clear instructions and simple grammar boxes, so students can study at home without a teacher.

The New Round-Up Teacher's Guide includes a full answer key, quizzes, tests plus answer keys, and audio scripts of progress check listening tasks.

The Passive is formed with the appropriate tense of the verb to be + past participle.

	Active Voice	Passive Voice
Present Simple	He delivers letters.	Letters are delivered .
Past Simple	He delivered the letters.	The letters were delivered .

Past Continuous	He was delivering the letters.	The letters were being delivered .
Future Simple	He will deliver the letters.	The letters will be delivered .
Infinitive	He has to deliver the letters.	The letters have to be delivered .
Modal + be + past part.	He must deliver the letters.	The letters must be delivered .

The Passive is used:

- when the agent (= the person who does the action) is unknown, unimportant or obvious from the context.

Changing from Active into Passive

- The object of the active verb becomes the subject in the new sentence.

	Subject	Verb	Object	(agent)
Active	Picasso	Painted	that picture.
Passive	That picture	was painted		by Picasso.

- The active verb changes into a passive form and the subject of the active verb becomes the agent. The agent is introduced with by or it is omitted. After modal verbs (will, can, must, have to, should, may, ought to) we use be + past participle.

You can use the machine for cutting bread. ⇨ The machine can be used for cutting bread.

- We use by + agent to say who or what carries out the action. We use with + instrument / material / ingredient to say what the agent used.

A cake was made by Tina. It was made with eggs, flour and sugar.

- We put the agent (= the person who does the action) into the passive sentence only if it adds information. When the agent is unknown, unimportant or obvious it is omitted. Agents such as people (in general), they, somebody, etc. are omitted.

Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone.
